

How to file your weekly certifications for Unemployment Benefits

Opening a new unemployment claim prepares you for receiving unemployment benefit payments, but you won't receive them unless you are otherwise eligible AND you tell the department that you are unemployed and seeking payment. This is called "certifying" for weeks of unemployment or referred to as "weekly filing." To certify for one or two weeks at a time, you will log into your Pennsylvania unemployment dashboard and follow the instructions in this guide.

To file a weekly certification, scroll down and locate the "File for Weekly Benefits" hyperlink that appears in the center column under the "Unemployment Services" tab.

Explanation of Weekly Certification Process

Payments for unemployment benefits are based on a seven day period from Sunday through Saturday. To claim benefits for a week of unemployment, you must file a weekly certification. Only by completing a certification each week can you receive an unemployment benefit.

Your weekly benefit claim certifies that for the seven day certification period, you:

1. Were ready, willing and able to work each day
2. Were seeking full time employment as required
3. Have completed your Work Search Verification
4. Did not refuse any job offers or referrals
5. Have reported any employment you had during the week and the gross pay or other payments you received

Your weekly certification should be completed in a timely manner; a delay in filing may result in a delay or denial of your payment.

OBEY THE LAW!

Answer all the questions truthfully. Your answers become part of the record of your claim. You must report all earnings for the weeks in which you work – even if you have not been paid yet. Any information you provide may be verified through computer crossmatching programs. If you fail to report wages or otherwise lie about your eligibility, you should expect to get caught.

Providing incorrect information, or information on someone other than yourself may be considered fraud. False statements are punishable pursuant to 18 Pa. C.S. §4904, relating to unsworn falsification to authorities. A person who knowingly makes a false statement or knowingly withholds information to obtain UC benefits commits a criminal offense under Section 801 of the Law, 43 P.S. §871, and may be subject to a fine, imprisonment, restitution, garnishment of federal tax refunds and loss of future benefits.

By filing this claim you acknowledge that you have read the Pennsylvania Unemployment Compensation Handbook, which includes information about your civil rights under federal law, and that you are responsible to abide by the information and instructions in the handbook.

☐ I have read and understand the information regarding potential fraud penalties.

You will be shown the date for which you are filing. The answers you provide must go along with your situation for that calendar week.

If you prefer to file your certification every two weeks, you are not able to decline filing for the first week to move to the next. You must answer the questions for week #1 to get to week #2. If you do not wish to collect payment for a week due to full-time work, you will be given the opportunity to report this information in your claim for that week. If you do not wish to collect payment for a week due to being unable or unavailable to work, you will be given an opportunity to report this information in your claim for that week.

Your Eligibility - Availability

* Jason, were you able and available to go to work during the week beginning ☒ Yes ☐ No
Sunday, October 15, 2023 and ending Saturday, October 21, 2023?

The law states you must be able to work and be available for work (commonly referred to as the "able and available" or "A and A" requirements) to be eligible for benefits.

Able to work means you are physically and mentally able to perform work, even if it is not the type of work you normally do.

Some examples of when you would not be able to work:

- Your doctor has told you that you cannot work at all or has placed restrictions on you that are so great you feel you are not able to do any type of work.
- You do not feel you are able to perform any type of work for any employer.

Available for work means you are ready and willing to perform work or accept work from a new or current employer.

Some examples of when you would not be available for work:

- You are on vacation.
- You are responsible for another individual(s) and it limits your availability to work.
- You do not have transportation or the ability to get to and from work.
- You are taking time to bond with a new child or children.
- You are in jail or prison.
- You are receiving treatment in an inpatient facility.
- You are taking bereavement time.

Please note that this information may be cross-checked with employer records.

* Jason, did you complete your required work searches and/or work search activities during the week beginning Sunday, October 15, 2023 and ending Saturday, October 21, 2023? If you are exempt from this requirement, click YES.

☐ Yes ☐ No

You are exempt if you receive work through a union hiring hall and are in good standing this week, if you are in training approved by the department or under the Trade Adjustment Act, if you participated in Reemployment Services and Eligibility Assessment (RESEA) at a PA CareerLink® this week, or if you are laid off due to a lack of work and your employer informed in WRITING that you will be recalled on a specific date.

I acknowledge I have read and understand the work search requirements, as presented in the UC Handbook, and am keeping a log of my activities. I understand that the basic work search requirement is to apply for two jobs each week, plus do a work search activity, with acceptable substitutions as found in the UC Handbook. I have completed the weekly work search activities, unless otherwise exempt.
