The For The People Act In The States

The For the People Act, designated as H.R.1 and S.1 in Congress, represents a once-in-a-generation opportunity to build a true inclusive democracy by putting more power in the hands of everyday people by strengthening our voting, elections, campaign finance, and ethics laws. This document shows where many of the For the People Act reforms have been passed and implemented at the state and local level. This document was created in April 2019 and updated in February 2021.

About Common Cause

Founded in 1970 by John Gardner, the former Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare in the Johnson administration, Common Cause has been a leader in the democracy reform movement for nearly five decades. With 1.2 million members and supporters across the country and state organizations in over 25 states, Common Cause serves as both the people's lobby and watchdog for government integrity and democratic reform, including reducing the influence of big money in politics, creating common-sense ethical rules, expanding and protecting the right to vote, ensuring secure and accessible elections, protecting a free and open internet, and ending partisan and racial gerrymandering.
