

Essay Prompts

Drawing from the ideas presented in PragerU videos, below are sample essay prompts you can use with your students. These are simply starting points, please share your own pro-America essay prompts on the PREP community's discussion forum.

Free Speech

- Why is freedom of speech so important, particularly speech that you disagree with? Should speech that some people find hurtful and offensive be banned?

Ten Commandments

- After you've watched PragerU's Ten Commandments series, explain what you believed about one of the commandments before you watched the video, and then explain how your understanding of that commandment changed after you watched the video.

Capitalism vs. Socialism

- Which economic system has historically been more effective? Which system lifts more people out of poverty? Which is ultimately more moral and why?
