

EIT CRISIS RESPONSE INITIATIVE

To help Europe tackle the COVID-19 pandemic and ensuing crisis, the EIT launched the EIT Crisis Response Initiative. This rapid mobilisation of EIT Community innovators & entrepreneurs delivers high-impact solutions.

14 May 2020

€60M

Announcement for Europe's innovators

30 June 2020

1 500

Proposals from 44 countries

8 September 2020

145

Ventures supported from 23 countries

62

Pandemic Response Projects from 25 countries

Carolina Garcia Digital Control Centre for COVID-19

A virtual control centre for patients who have tested positive for COVID-19 that experts can use to independently assess, validate, or augment the patient treatment plan

Tom Sam Si-Quat by AFFIX Labs

An anti-viral clear coating developed to kill viruses including the pathogen of COVID-19. The coating can resist thousands of touches & creates an active layer that is self-sanitising within minutes

Magdalena Kozłowska NapiFeryn

NapiFeryn extracts protein from rapeseed oil production waste streams, providing a sustainable alternative to animal-derived proteins

Melani Furlan SOL4All

SOL4All want to accelerate the transformation and regeneration of cities in Croatia through a community led solar revolution by delivering 1 000 solar PV systems to urban households

31 December
2020

INNOVATIONS FOR EUROPE: A HEALTHY, GREEN & DIGITAL RECOVERY

eit.europa.eu

EITeu

EIT

EIT news

EITeu